

ALX AICE: Milestone #5 Worksheet

Simulation Recap

This week, your task was to set up a meeting with the Executive Committee of Waga, who are based in different countries. To overcome the time zone differences, you created a Loom video presentation of the new VacAI application. Before making the video, you had a dry-run presentation with colleagues at Waga. This Milestone worksheet helps you collate all the activities you carried out in one place. Please follow the steps and instructions to complete the milestone successfully.

Step 4: Reflection

My experience with peer coaching has been incredibly rewarding and insightful. I found that engaging in discussions with peers allowed for a diverse exchange of ideas and perspectives, fostering a supportive environment for personal and professional growth. One aspect that went well was the opportunity to receive constructive feedback from peers, which helped me gain new insights into my strengths and areas for improvement. Additionally, the collaborative nature of peer coaching encouraged open communication and mutual support, leading to valuable learning experiences.

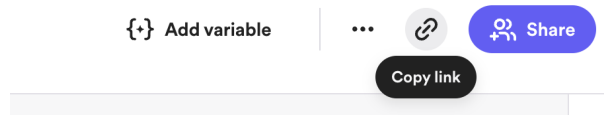

However, there are areas for improvement in peer coaching. One challenge was ensuring consistency in participation and engagement among peers, as varying levels of involvement could impact the effectiveness of the coaching process. Additionally, providing more structured frameworks or guidelines for peer coaching sessions could enhance the overall experience and ensure that objectives are met more effectively. Overall, while there is room for improvement, my experience with peer coaching has been positive and has contributed to my personal and professional development journey.
